Did you know?

When you work at the pool you get to swim AND exercise for free!

You and your coworkers become a tight knit group, almost like a family!

Working at a pool looks great on resumes and university applications too. Since you have to take courses to work it shows you have ambition, desire to learn, and a willingness to do what it takes to become employed. You also gain valuable experiences that you can not get anywhere else.

You start above minimum wage and the more courses you are willing to take the more money you earn!!!!

If you stick with it and take and pass the NLS course when you are 16 you receive a high school credit!!!!

Here is how to do it

Age 13 take Bronze Medallion

Age 14 take Bronze Cross and Standard First Aid

You can now begin your employment

Age 16 take NLS and if you decide you want to teach lessons also take LSI

It is really that simple!

We have great instructors who are willing to put in time and help you succeed to reach your goal.

Look for more to come on the courses being offered in the community calendar, Facebook page and posters around town.

Moosomin Community Theatre

Guitar, saxophone, huge song writing, and a voice that won him a 2013 Canadian Folk Music Award for Contemporary Singer, Ian Sherwood Brings the Light to every stage he stands on. A born story teller and a constant creator, his music dances the line between folk and pop. Ian sings about relatable topics such as love, forgiveness, regret and harmony. His use of creative word-play, dynamic live looping and irresistible east coast charm captivates listeners and completely destroys fourth walls.

PRETTY ARCHIE

Wednesday, November 21, 2018 7:30 PM

Pretty Archie's honest, heartfelt writing connects listeners with a saltwater perspective on modern living. The band continues to push the genre lines of Americana, Bluegrass, Country and Blues creating the uniquely "Pretty Archie sound". Their albums have received multiple East Coast Music Award nominations, and have entertained audiences Coast to Coast. Foot-stomping-high-energy songs, mixed with poignant 4pc-harmony ballades are what these Cape Breton musicians are best known for by their fan across Canada.

RED MOON ROAD

Tuesday, February 26, 2019 7:30 PM
Moosomin Community Theatre

Red Moon Road was formed in 2012 by Daniel Jordan, Sheena Rattai and Daniel Peloquin-Hopfner. 'Sorrows and Glories' (their third album) has delighted listeners worldwide. The three collaborative yet distinct writers frame immaculately crafted songs with original and innovative instrumental work. With tastes of Albertan country,

Parisian aires, banjo driven anthems and the tradition folk storytelling in a Canadiana style, the music carries the stories as compellingly as the lyrics. The Winnipeg folk trio is known for surviving adversity, spinning stories into songs and, more often, breaking hearts with stunning musicianship. Live, Red Moon Road makes a much bigger sound than one would expect from a trio. In an impressive well-choreographed show, bordering on spectacle, the trio incorporates impeccable three-part harmonies, a roots drum kit split entertainingly but pragmatically between two band members and an acoustic guitar rigged to also be a bass.

had toured the world before the age of 22. World Instrumental Music was the genre and by the time they reached 25, had been played on every PBS station, documentaries and were part of "The Hottest Fiddle Show in the World" as dubbed by the Walt Disney Corporation.

The 2 moved on to explore other musical passions. Aaron became a sought-after Guitarist and Vocalist in the Jazz community in Canada and Denis became a sought after player in the country music genre garnering him 5 CCMA awards for Instrumentalist of the Year. Together again, they are putting their superb playing, vocals and songwriting abilities together as Ghostboy. This band separates the men from the boys.....and, rest assured, these guys won't be Ghost's for long!

AVOID A LEGACY OF TAXES

Seven ways to help minimize taxes on your estate.

American Inventor and Politician Benjamin Franklin wrote, 'In this world nothing can be said to be certain, except death and taxes.' And while the thought of death can be unpleasant, so can the prospect of leaving your family a large tax bill. With a little planning, you can help minimize the taxes on your estate once you've passed on. Here are a few tax-savings strategies to consider.

Leave assets to your spouse

Assets left to a spouse or spousal trust (a trust that entitles income to a spouse) are considered disposed of at the deceased's adjusted cost base (the ACB is the amount of your investment that has already been taxed). The tax is deferred until the surviving spouse (or trust) sells the assets, or until your spouse's death.

Give assets away

If you know that you won't need certain assets in your lifetime and have already designated heirs, you may want to consider making those gifts while you're still living. Giving assets away when you're alive can help your estate avoid potential tax bill. Not to mention you get the joy of seeing your loved ones put your gift to use.

For tax purposes, however, giving assets away is generally considered a disposition. This means that if the fair market value at the time of the gift is greater than its ACD, the result is a tax bill. For example, if the fair market value is $1000 and the ACB is $700, you would pay tax on a $300 capital gain. This strategy works best if the assets you're giving away are likely to appreciate in the future.

Choose beneficiaries with a tax strategy in mind

If tax deferral is the priority, consider leaving assets that have appreciated in value to your spouse first. If you're planning to leave assets to others, it may be more strategic to pass on tax-friendly assets, such as cash, guaranteed interest contracts (GICs), money market funds or assets that have not greatly appreciated in value since you acquired them.

Make the most of exemptions

When it comes to tax, it can pay to take advantage of exemptions. The two most common are:

The principal residence exemption: This can be used to offset capital gains on one property you own. This could be your home, but it could also be a cottage or to her second property that you ordinarily inhabit (rental properties do not qualify).

The enhanced capital gains exemption:

This can be used to offset up to $800,000 (indexed for inflation after 2014) of capital gains on your shares in certain private companies, a qualifying farm or fishing property.

Donate to charity

You can leave part of your estate to charity (usually via your will). Your estate will be able to claim a donation tax credit for the fair market value of the gift.

File multiple tax returns

In the year of death, up to four tax returns can be filed. A claim can be made for some personal tax credits, such as the basic personal amount, on each of the returns filed, effectively multiplying the number of credits claimed. In addition, your estate would benefit from the lower graduated tax rates more than once in the year of death.

Buy life insurance

Life insurance can assist in funding your estate's eventual tax liability. This helps ensure that your heirs will be left with as much of the estate proceeds as possible, and protects your assets from being liquidated in order to pay your estate's tax bill.

If you are looking to minimize your estate's tax bill and which to leave more assets to heirs, planning now can save a lot of money and difficulty for your loved ones.
